

Content

Title :	Directions for Guiding and Contacting Overseas Compatriot Student Clubs
Date :	2020.06.05
Legislative :	1.Full text 8 points stipulated and promulgated in OCAC Qiao Fu Zai Zi No. 09030332341 document on August 24, 2001 2.Point 2 amended in OCAC Qiao Fu Zai Zi No. 09830395061 document on August 14, 2009, taking immediate effect. 3.Amendment promulgated in OCAC Qio Sheng Lian Zi No. 10905010981 order on June 5, 2020, taking immediate effect.
Content :	1.The Overseas Community Affairs Council (abbreviated to OCAC hereafter) sets these Directions to guide Overseas Compatriot Student Clubs (abbreviated to Student Clubs hereafter) to enhance contacts and promote friendship. 2.Student Clubs are categorized as follows: (1)School clubs, with school names. (2)Regional clubs, with country or region names. 3.To apply for registration, Student Clubs must submit the club rules and a list of more than 20 members; school club applications shall be submitted to the OCAC by the school, and regional clubs shall apply to the OCAC directly. 4.The OCAC should guide registered Student Clubs to enhance contacts and promote friendship. The OCAC can convene discussion meetings for responsible persons of Student Clubs at any time. Responsible persons should attend on time or designate a representative. In order to convey related information and enhance communications, the OCAC may guide Student Clubs in the use of instant messaging software or social media websites to establish a directory or set up an online community. 5.Student Clubs can apply to the OCAC for subsidies according to the Directions for OCAC Subsidies for Overseas Compatriot Student Club Activities and Directions for OCAC Subsidies for Publications Issued by Overseas Compatriot Student Clubs. 6.Student Clubs can engage in the following activities: (1) Activities related to maintaining club operations. (2) Welcoming, farewell or training activities for overseas compatriot students. (3) Social activities for major festivals. (4) Taking part in OCAC activities to encourage networking among overseas compatriot students. (5) Taking part in reception service activities for important OCAC events. (6) Assisting OCAC student recruitment activities. (7) Planning and holding special overseas compatriot student activities.

Data Source : Overseas Community Affairs Council, Republic of China (Taiwan) Laws and Regulations Retrieving System