
Content

Title :	Calculations of accumulating residence overseas for at least four years for males of conscription age who has naturalized as a citizen of the R.O.C. (TAIWAN)
Date :	2004.04.21
Legislative :	Promulgated by Order of OCAC Chiao-Cheng-Fu No. 09330175771 on April 21, 2004.
Content :	For males of conscription age who has naturalized as a citizen of the R.O.C. (TAIWAN) and who had applied for and been issued with an Overseas Compatriot Identity Certificate for Military Service before the enforcement of the Overseas Compatriot Identity Certification Act, which enter into force on December 20, 2002, the calculation of accumulating residence overseas for at least four years commences from the applicant' s date of birth. For those who apply for an Overseas Compatriot Identity Certificate for Military Service after the enforcement of the Overseas Compatriot Identity Certification Act, the calculation commences from the date on which the applicant has naturalized as a citizen of the R.O.C. (TAIWAN).

Data Source : Overseas Community Affairs Council, Republic of China (Taiwan) Laws and Regulations Retrieving System